

MOTHER MCAULEY LIBERAL ARTS HIGH SCHOOL

Chicago, Illinois

PRESIDENT

The Board of Mother McAuley High School of Chicago, IL, invites applications for the open position of President effective July 1, 2012. Founded in 1956 by the Sisters of Mercy, Mother McAuley Liberal Arts High School currently educates 1,300 young women grades 9 through 12 and is the largest all-girls high school in the country. McAuley promotes a single-gender, Catholic education platform that encourages young women to grow in faith, envision their future and discover their talents through a challenging and motivating academic and co-curricular program. Mother McAuley's tradition of excellence has made it a top choice for all-girls private education in the Chicago area.

The President is the Chief Executive Officer and, as such, has the general charge of overseeing the educational program and the advancement and financial matters of the school. The Principal reports to the President who is responsible to the Board of Trustees. The ideal candidate will have a strong record of accomplishment as both an enthusiastic Catholic educator and administrator and be able to articulate the charism of the Sisters of Mercy. The President will also successfully engage external stakeholders including alumnae, parents and the local community. Discover more about the school at www.mothermcauley.org.

The successful candidate for the position will lead every member of the administration, faculty, and support services through a collaborative leadership style, superior communication and interpersonal skills while achieving the highest standards of Catholic education. The candidate will also demonstrate the ability to enhance the human and financial resources available to the school, the ability to develop and implement strategic planning goals and nurture successful relationships with the governing board and other external publics in fulfillment of the Mission of Mother McAuley Liberal Arts High School.

Qualified applicants must be a practicing Roman Catholic, hold an advanced education degree and have a minimum of five years of effective leadership experience in a comparable administrative position.
